T U E S D A Y, OCTOBER 4, 1768

ADDRESS to all who have a legal Right to vote for, or to be elected Members of the General Assembly, to represent the Parishes of ST. PHILIP and ST. MICHAEL, CHARLES-TOWN.

NOTHING has been more common than Addresses of this Nature, at each returning Period for electing Members to serve in the House of Assembly; but from my Observations, the good Views and Purposes of such Addresses have generally been defeated by the dilixity of the Performances—whence but few People could be at the Pains of reading them attentively, and still less could understand clearly what they had read. The majority of Electors, in this populous Town, are plain, honest Men—who understand the Force and Meaning of these ambiguous Precepts, without any Additions to the Text, Do ye unto all Men as ye would they should do unto you.

Thou shalt not bear false Witness against thy Neighbour. Much better than they understand the Glossings, and abstruse reasonings of any tedious Commentator, in the many Divisions and Sub-divisions, under which he may, for a Proof of his Skill in puzzling, think proper to display those simple unctious. Therefore in my present Attempt to speak to Fellow Citizens, upon a like Occurrence, the General Election, beginning this Day—I shall endeavour to shun Error complained of—My Words shall be few—supported by good Authority—plain, and void of Offence.

FIRST, TO THE ELECTORS. Choose ye wise Men, and Understanding—known among you to be Men of—Integrity—Discretion—Ability and Reputation to serve you.—Men of approved Zeal and Diligence in public Affairs.—AND TAKE HEED! that you do not away your Votes, by an imprudent Choice of any vain person, void of those essential Qualifications—lest you deprive yourselves of a full and proper Representation.—Men whose Fortunes are confined within the Province, who discover no Inclination to withdraw from America—proper Subjects for your Attention—such Men may sometimes be mistaken in their Opinions, but they can never possibly be your Enemies, nor continue long in Opposition to your truest Interests.

SECONDLY, TO CANDIDATES, AND THOSE WHO MAY BE ELECTED.

Let no Man, merely for the Vanity of being a Member of the Assembly, offer himself as a Candidate—nor without a well grounded Prospect of being able to do some real Service to his Country.—Retract, even after you are elected, and refuse to take a Seat in the House of Assembly, unless you are conscientiously resolved to be constant and firm in the service of your Constituents, and have also some reasonable grounds to hope, that your Abilities are equal to the Duties of your Calling.—REMEMBER, that the Properties, Liberties of Thousands—even of Thousands yet unborn, are committed to your Protection.—Be loyal—but maintain your Freedom—your Privileges—that is to say—the Constitutional Rights and Liberties of those whom you represent.—Listen attentively to the Voices of your Fellow Subjects, when they cry for Redress of Grievances—and however remote their Situation, or indigent their Circumstances, sympathize with, and strive to relieve them.—Each Member, upon such Occasions, should lay aside all partial Considerations, and think himself a Representative of the whole Province—Suffer no self-interest, or partial views to warp your Sentiments, or to bias your Votes—nor any unmanly Fears to deter you from declaring your mind, upon every proper Opportunity.

When once we are afraid to speak, we are no longer safe.

AND now, my Friends and Fellow Citizens, let us proceed to choose, if you please—Men, who by their own honest Industry, have raised themselves to Independence—or Men, who inherit and improve Estates acquired by the Industry of their Ancestors—no Matter by what Names they are called—or what may be their lawful Occupations—if they are wise Men—Men of Understanding—known among you to be of good Report for Integrity, Ability and Conscience—let us choose from among such, the full Number to represent us in the next House of Assembly.

WE, and our Posterity, shall certainly reap great Benefits from such a judicious Election, and no Man among us will more sincerely rejoice therein, than

Your faithful Friend and Servant,
PHILIP.

NEW-YORK, JULY 18.

To the PRINTER.

Your inserting the following humble petition of the House of REPRESENTATIVES of New-Jersey, to our most gracious SOVEREIGN, extracted from the Votes of that House of the month of May last, will show the sense that people have of the late acts of parliament; and is said to be in consequence of the Circular Letter from the Assembly of the Massachusetts-Bay.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

W E Your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Representatives of Your colony of New-Jersey, confiding in Your Majesty's paternal affection for Your people, humbly implore permission to approach the throne, and to present our supplications in Behalf of ourselves and our constituents, Your Majesty's faithful and afflicted Subjects.

"Before that happy period, in which the empire of the British dominions was, by the favour of divine Providence, for the felicity of those dominions, and of Europe in general, established in Your illustrious House; our ancestors, with the consent of the Crown, removed from their native land, then abounding in all blessings, but that perfect security of liberty, and that merciful spirit of administration, which render Your royal family so justly dear to Your remotest Subjects; and ventured with their helpless relatives, through a vast ocean, and trusted themselves, with their tender companions, to the inhospitable and unknown wilderness of this new world; the horrors of which no consideration could render tolerable, but the prospect of enjoying here that complete freedom, which Britons never thought could be purchased at too great a price.

"The Subjects thus emigrating, brought with them, as inherent in their persons, all the rights and liberties of natural born Subjects within the parent state: In consequence of these, a government was formed, under which they have been constantly exercised and enjoyed by the inhabitants, and repeatedly and solemnly recognized and confirmed by Your royal Predecessors, and the legislature of Great-Britain.

"One of these rights and liberties, vested in the people of this colony, is the privilege of being exempted from any taxation, but such as are imposed upon them by themselves, or by their Representatives; and this they esteem so invaluable, that they are fully persuaded, no other can exist without it.

"Your Majesty's signal distinction is, that You reign over freemen, and Your peculiar glory, that You reign in such a manner, that Your Subjects, the disposers of their own property, are ready and willing, whenever Your service calls upon them, with their lives and fortunes to assert Your cause.

"Your people of this colony, who share in the blessings flowing from Your wisdom and virtue, most gratefully sensible of their obligations to so excellent a Prince, humbly hope they have never been deficient in duly acknowledging them: Whenever it has been necessary that supplies should be levied within this colony, requisitions by Your Majesty, or by Your royal Predecessors, conformable to the rights and liberties of this Your people, have been made, and by them loyally and liberally complied with.

"We beseech Your Majesty, to do them the justice to believe, that they can never fail, on any future occasion, to demonstrate their devotion to Your Majesty; nor can they resign, without unutterable shame and grief, the honour and satisfaction of voluntarily and cheerfully expressing in the strongest manner, their circumstances will admit, their unfeigned affection for Your Majesty's person, their distinguished duty to Your government, and their inflexible resolution to maintain Your authority, and defend Your dominions.

"Penetrated with these sentiments, this Your People, with the utmost concern and anxiety, observe, that duties have been lately imposed on them by Parliament, for the sole and express purposes of raising a revenue: This is a taxation upon them, from which they conceive they ought to be protected, by the acknowledged principles of the constitution, that freemen cannot be legally taxed but by themselves, or by their Representatives; and that they are represented in Parliament, they not only cannot allow, but are convinced, that, from their local circumstances, they never can be.

"Very far is it from our intention, to deny our subordination to that august body, or our dependance on the kingdom of Great-Britain; in these connections, and in the settlement of our liberties, under the auspicious influence of Your royal House, we know our happiness consists; and therefore, to confine those connections, and to strengthen this settlement, is at once our interest, duty and delight: Nor do we apprehend, that it lies within our power, by any means more effectually to promote these great purposes, than by zealously striving to preserve in perfect vigour, those sacred rights and liberties, under the inspiring sanction of which, inconceivable difficulties and dangers opposing, this colony has been rescued from the rudest state of nature, converted into a populous, flourishing, and valuable territory; and has contributed, in a very considerable degree, to the welfare of Great-Britain.

"Most Gracious Sovereign,

"The incessant exertion of Your truly royal cares, to procure Your people a prosperity equal to Your love of them, encourage us with all humility to pray, that Your Majesty's clemency will be graciously pleased to take into consideration our unhappy circumstances; and to afford us such relief, as Your Majesty's wisdom shall judge to be most proper."

A LETTER to a FRIEND in LONDON.

SIR, Boston, July 8, 1768.

BY a Message from the Governor of this Province, to the House of Representatives, accompanied with an extract from the Earl of Hillsborough's Letter, it appears that the resolution of the former House, which gave birth to their circular letter to the other Colonies, has been represented to His Majesty, in the odious light of a party and seditious measure; and the last House have been required to rescind and disavow it. They have maturely considered the Requisition, and voted against a compliance with it, by a majority of 93 to 17. Could any thing of this nature appear strange on this side the water, one would wonder that a measure so innocent in itself, so prudent, so salutary for his Majesty's American Subjects, so respectful to the mother country, and so dutiful and loyal to the king,—transacted in the view of the world, and solemnly laid before the governor himself without the least notice from him to the House or the public, that he had any unfavourable sentiments of it, could be thus misrepresented: But it has been the unhappy fate of this province, perhaps of all America, to be defamed and abused without intermission, by those who ought to afford to his Majesty the best and most intelligent, and to fall under his displeasure, at times when they have flattered themselves they were in the path of their duty, and hoped for the Royal protection and favour. Such are the times, and such the country we live in! There are men, enemies to the King and to His People, from whom both have a sacred right to expect better things, who have been incessantly endeavouring to strike out sparks of jealousy and discord, which may one day prove fatal to an empire!—Behold, what a great matter a little fire kindleth! and unfortunately for us, these malignant whisperers seem to have the ear and attention of the nation, while she is not aware, that there are men in America, some perhaps, whose rank and station give her a just right of confidence, who seek their own greatness, tho' at the expense of her utter ruin.—These men are not satisfied with defaming the most worthy characters:—They must proscrib a Province! a Continent! And in imitation of that hostile patre et humani generis, they seem ardently to thirst for a power to cut off the wretched people at one stroke! These are not the suggestions of party and faction: They are the sentiments of the public: They were lately drawn into a dutiful and humble petition to the throne; wherein, among other articles of impeachment of a Governor of a province, it is alleged, "that he has practised the sending over depositions to the ministry, against gentlemen of character, without giving the accused the least notice of his purposes and proceedings." And, "That they have reason to apprehend, that he has endeavoured to persuade his Majesty's ministers to believe, that an intention was formed, and a plan settled, in this and the rest of the colonies, treasonably to withdraw themselves, from all connection with, and dependance upon Great-Britain; and from their natural allegiance to his Majesty's sacred person and government." This petition was read, and sustained, and partly accepted; and very probably would have been carried by a very large majority, if the Governor had not immediately prerogued, and afterwards dissolved the Assembly.—There are men, a real faction, who seem to aim at hurrying the people into despair and distraction; but when this same people have good sense enough to pursue cool, dispassionate, but firm, and manly, rational and constitutional measures.—Measures which the Faction itself dare not but apparently avow.—Measures which even Governor Bernard has been heard to say, he would have heartily joined in if desired; these men have the perfidy and audacity to represent them to his Majesty's ministers as the designs of a desperate, expiring Faction, tending to create unwarrantable combinations, and to excite an unjustifiable opposition to the constitutional authority of the parliament! Good God! Shall we be for ever thus abused without Redress! Shall we be incessantly defamed as Rebels and Traitors! Do we deserve to have ships of war before us, as they now actually are, in hostile appearance? or can they be designed to put weak women and children into terror? Shall we be perpetually threatened with troops and dragooning, for humbly laying before our royal Sovereign, the distress brought upon us, by the machinations of his and our enemies; imploring his gracious protection, and calling upon our fellow Subjects and fellow sufferers, to join with us in humble supplication! Is this rebellion against a British King! Will the Nation much longer be deceived! What must be the event! May Heaven avert the ruin of the British empire! America, if properly cherished now, will live to support that Empire! America may one day however, bid defiance to the proudest of her enemies, and rise and shine imperial in the western world: This good land, not long since the habitation of savages, and men more savage, may yet be the happy retreat of independence and freedom; abundantly sufficient to make some chosen heir of the Brunswick line, the most glorious Potentate the world has yet seen! Possibly you now think me enthusiastic:—I am calm and sedate: Let Britain live really Great, till in the course of time she must share the common fate of empires: Till that event, it will be her own and her colonies interest to be united! These I know must be your sentiments as well as mine: It is then our duty, as far as lies in our power, to cultivate and establish the important Union.

I am, Sir, Your hearty Friend, and humble Servant,

MR. CROUCH,
It is well known that the Flies make it uncomfortable and dangerous to ride near where Indico is made, they torment the Cattle so as to make the Beef but ordinary, raise the Price of Butter, and unfit the Cattle to pass through the Severity of the Winter.
I beg Leave to acquaint you, this Evil may almost be totally prevented by burying the Weed. I have done it for some Years past, and scarce miss the Time lost by it. As there is no other Indico Plantation near mine, my Horses and Cattle feed as quietly in my Pasture, as they would any where else. I was directed to this Method by several Persons who had found the same Advantage, by burying their Weed.
No doubt but the Waters, &c. about the Vats breed Flies; but the greatest Number by far (especially the stinging Flies) are bred by the Weed, as it lies on the Ground after sleeping.
It is objected that burying the Weed takes too much Time—I grant it takes some Time; but who, for the sake of a little Time, would be a Tormentor of himself, his Neighbours, and all the poor dumb Beasts near him? My Method is to dig a Hole in the Earth, about 12 or 14 Feet Diameter, 2 and an half Feet Deep, the Earth to be thrown round the Edges of the Hole, (it may be done in the Winter to save some of the busy Time) this will contain one Week's Weed of a Steeper 14 Feet Square: We begin to throw in on Monday, it will settle fast, especially if some Weight be put on it; by Saturday Evening it will stand up in the Shape of a Sugar-Loaf, and Flies will begin to Form: We cover it lightly with the Earth round the Hole, and all is secure—in the following Winter, the Earth being taken off, there will be fine Manure, then clear the Holes against the next Season.
I am,

Sir, Your most humble Servant,

A PLANTER.

CHARLES-TOWN, OCTOBER 4.

SATURDAY last, being the First of October, a Number of the principal MECHANICKS of this Town, assembled under some Trees, in a Field adjacent to the Rope-Walks, in order to fix upon six Gentlemen to represent the Inhabitants of this Town in the ensuing General Assembly; which being concluded upon, they then partook of a decent Entertainment, which had been provided upon the Occasion: At Five in the Afternoon, they removed to a large Live-Oak Tree, in Mr. Mazyck's Pasture, adjoining to Christopher Gadsden, Esquire's, at the North End of the Town, which they CONSECATED by the Name of the TREE OF LIBERTY; when the celebrated Liberty Song, so much admired in America, with several others, were sung: At Dark the Tree was ornamented with 45 Lights, sundry Sky-Rockets, and other Fire Works were played off, and loyal and suitable Toasts were given by a Gentleman who was chosen President, and drank by the Company: At Eight in the Evening, the Company returned to Town, marching in regular Order down King-street and Broad-street, preceded by 45 of the Number, each carrying a lighted Candle; and when they came opposite to the House of his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, they drew up before the Door, and the President gave the Toast of the Massachusetts Ninety-two, &c. which was followed by three Huzzas; from thence they proceeded on to Mr. Dillon's Tavern, before the Door of which they also drew up, when the President gave another Toast, May the ensuing Members of Assembly be unanimous, and never RESCIND from the Resolutions of the MASSACHUSETTS NINETY-TWO, and three Huzzas were again given; then the whole Company repaired to the LONG-ROOM in the said House, where 45 Candles were placed on the Table, and 92 Glasses were applied in refunding the Voices of as many loyal and respectable Toasts, and at Ten they broke up;—having spent the Day, and concluded the Evening, in civil Mirth and Jollity;—without the least Irregularity happening,—on the contrary, the utmost Respect was shewn to one another, attended with Unanimity and Concord, during the whole Proceeding.—such as must certainly reflect Honour on the Intention of their Meeting, as well as to convince the World of their steady and fixed Determination to join, upon all proper Occasions, in support of the glorious Cause of LIBERTY and their COUNTRY.

We are assured that a Couple, who arrived from Geneva at Purrysburgh in the Year 1734, and have lived in that Township ever since, having lived agreeably 50 Years in the married State, did lately celebrate their Entrance into their second Jubilee, and renewed their Nuptials by giving a genteel Entertainment to their Children, Grand Children, Friends and Neighbours. They are still favoured with a considerable Share of Health and Vivacity.

Yesterday Captain Bailey arrived here from London, but we have neither Room or Time to insert in this Day's Gazette any Intelligence brought by him, as it was late in the Afternoon before we received the English Papers.

We should be glad of an Opportunity of knowing the Author of the Piece sent us last Friday, in Answer to Dr. De Laborde's in our last; for we think it necessary that his Name should be affixed to it, and that its Intention be recommended to us in the same Manner as that of the Doctor's.
